

Leisure Thursday Senior Program at the Hebrew Institute of White Plains
20 Greenridge Avenue, White Plains NY 10605
914-948-3095

Learn Computers at 10:30am with Jonathan Goodblatt by appointment

10:30am to 11:30am open discussion program called "Aging Successfully" led by social worker Lilly Singer, CSW.

Rabbi Marder's Chumash Study begins at 11am.

11:30am open discussion with Marilyn Berkowitz.

Greetings and schmoozing followed by a tasty Kosher Lunch at Noon for $7.

Door Prizes. Handicap accessible.

Free Program from 1pm – 2pm

Summer 2010 Programming

June 24, 2010

Edith Glass presents the late, great Betty Gable. Come learn about the wonderful actress who became the highest-paid female star in Hollywood in the 1940's, receiving $300,000 a year. Edith Glass began her ballet training at the age of four. At the age of six she was accepted into the School of American Ballet, where she studied with many renowned teachers. At seven, she was chosen by George Balanchine to appear in his ballet "The Wanderer". Later, she studied with the renowned choreographer Anthony Tudor. She appeared in several musical productions after receiving her Chorus Equity membership card when she was 15.

July 1, 2010

Join Mina Crasson, phenomenal public speaker and entertainer as she presents "Emma Lazarus: Woman of Poetry, Woman of Passion". Mina brings Emma Lazarus' life story alive with surprises and inspiration. You will be captivated as you are swept along as Emma develops as a poet and social activist. Emma Lazarus was an American poet born in New York City who is best known for writing "The New Colossus", a sonnet written in 1883, that is now engraved on a bronze plaque on a wall in the base of the Statue of Liberty.

July 8, 2010

David Crasson, Professional Magician will amaze and astound you with his slight of hand and illusions. David has been entertaining audiences for 25 years and has appeared on stage and television. You won't want to miss him!

July 15, 2010

Hot Topics in the News

Enjoy a really lively discussion about current news topics that everyone is talking about. Join the discussion and ask questions about local, national and international breaking news. Vincent Bonelli is a Professor of History and Political Science at the City University of New York and is an Adjunct Professor at Westchester Community College.

July 22, 2010

Join Edith Glass as she presents the dramatic story of Rita Hayworth. Come meet Rita as Edith brings her to life right before your very eyes!

Edith Glass began her ballet training at the age of four. At the age of six she was accepted into the School of American Ballet, where she studied with many renowned teachers. At seven, she was chosen by George Balanchine to appear in his ballet "The Wanderer". Later, she studied with the renowned choreographer Anthony Tudor. She appeared in several musical productions after receiving her Chorus Equity membership card when she was 15.

July 29, 2010

Ian Gallagher presents a musical program including oldies but goodies as well as Irish and Scottish sing a longs. Ian has been entertaining audiences of all ages for many years and will delight you with his celtic charm.

August 5, 2010

Bud Livingston will present a program. Details to follow.

August 12, 2010

Edith Glass will finish her series on Famous Women when she presents Doris Day. Doris Day was an American actress, singer, and animal rights activist. Edith will captivate you as she presents Doris to you in grand style!

Edith Glass began her ballet training at the age of four. At the age of six she was accepted into the School of American Ballet, where she studied with many renowned teachers. At seven, she was chosen by George Balanchine to appear in his ballet "The Wanderer". Later, she studied with the renowned choreographer Anthony Tudor. She appeared in several musical productions after receiving her Chorus Equity membership card when she was 15.