

General Office hours are:

Monday – Thursday 9:00am – 4:00pm

Friday 9:00am – 2:00pm

Office closed Saturday and Sunday.

Messages left on general voice mail after office hours or on the weekend will not be returned until the following business day. Please do not leave emergency messages on the general voice mail after hours or on the weekends.

Rabbi Marder's Office hours are:

Rabbi Marder is in the office throughout the week, and can be reached at 914-948-3095 extension 306. He has tentatively set aside the following hours to be especially available to receive calls (subject, of course, to emergencies, meetings, and other last minute adjustments):

Monday and Tuesday: 9:30-11:30am

Wednesday: 10:30am-12:30pm

Thursday: 1-3pm

Friday: 9:30-11:30am

You may certainly try to reach him at other times as well. Messages left on voice-mail will be returned as soon as possible, within 24 hours (except weekend messages which might not be picked up until the next open-office day). The voice mail message includes emergency contact information.